Senate Resolution No. 5

Senator Woodruff offered the following resolution:

Whereas, There have accumulated in the offices of the Secretary of State thousands of Senate Journals of prior sessions of the Legislature, in excess of public demand and requirements therefor, including also a number of copies of session laws for certain previous sessions of the Legislature in excess of the demand therefor; and

Whereas, This excess occupies badly needed space in the storerooms of the Department of the Secretary of State; and

Whereas, These excess volumes might serve some useful purpose in the public school and other public libraries of the State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate, That the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Contingent Expense be, and is, hereby authorized to make such arrangements with the Secretary of State, as may be deemed advisable, to distribute said excess volumes of the journals and session laws, thus releasing the space now occupied by same in the vaults and storerooms of the offices of the Secretary of State for other uses; and be it further

Resolved, That any carrying charges for transportation on such volumes be charged to and paid by the consignee, and that neither the State nor the Contingent Expense Fund of the Senate shall be chargeable with any expense in connection therewith.

The resolution was explained by Senator Woodruff, and by unanimous consent, it was considered at this time, and was adopted.
